

CENTURY BLEED THRU MARKER

Directs of Use:

- Open cap. Shake the marker well before first use.
- To push ink press the nib a few times until you see the ink on the tip.
- Put the cap back on after each use.

Features

- Century's Bleed Thru Marker is a permanent industrial grade valve action paint marker for construction purposes.
- It is made up of a hard aluminum body filled with ink and felt-tip with valve action for smooth ink flow.
- The marker is available in two types for oil based primers and water based primers.
- Permanent & Bright Markings on all surfaces like metal, iron, concrete, steel, alloys etc.
- The unique ink formulation enables the markings to bleed thru and be visible even after painting over the surface that has been marked. Markings Bleed thru and remain visible after painting over the surface.
- It is widely used in the construction industry, ship building and bridge fabrication on metals & alloys for Used for inspection, coding, layout or assembly operations.

91-22-40031204
Century Markers

Caution:

- Avoid contact from eyes or flames.
- Ink is harmful if consumed.

Packaging Information

Century's Bleed Thru Marker	Century's Bleed Thru Marker	—	—
	Century's Bleed Thru Marker	47 Grams	—
	Century's UV Security Marker	300 Grams	7.5 X 5 X 15

Tip Sizes Available

- Plastic Tip: Chisel Tip 5 mm

Colors Available & Product Code :

RED	BLACK	BLUE
91202	91204	91205

